Dated this the 13th day of March, 2007

A W A R D

The dispute between the parties has been settled in the following manner:

It will be open to the appellant, mother, to take her minor daughter, Abhirami along with her to Dubai. She will bring the child to Cochin once in an year preferably during school vacation and hand over the custody of the child to the respondent for three weeks. The child will be brought to the office of the Registrar, High court of Kerala from where the respondent will take the custody of the child. The appellant will inform the respondent as well as the Registrar directly or through the counsel, the date of production of her child before the Registrar sufficiently early. The respondent will hand over the custody of the child to the appellant after a period of three weeks in the presence of the Registrar. If the parties desire to have any modification to this order, it will be open to them to move the Family Court, Ernakulam.
